Course Objectives:

This course will be writing- and reading-intensive, allowing the students to further develop communication skills in the language. Language lessons will primarily focus in developing students speaking, listening, reading, grammar and writing skills in the Intermediate Advanced level using the chosen text. Classroom activities and discussion will explore the following themes: socio-political and sociolinguistics issues, Filipino Culture, History and Colonization, language use. Students will be given a chance to read and write intensively in the target language.

Textbooks

A fairly comprehensive dictionary (recommended English-Tagalog Dictionary by Leo English)

Printed chapters of the Text (Noli Me Tangere ni Rizal:Isang Interpretasyon by Ruth Elynia Mabanglo and Diosa N. Morong) will be supplied

Requirements

Attendance, Homework and Classroom Participation (25%)

Students are required to attend all classes, and will only be allowed three excused absences. Absences will severely affect final grade. More than 4 absences will automatically give students "F" grade under Attendance. Students are required to participate in classroom conversations and submit homework on the day it is due.

Individual Oral Reports (15%)

Students will be assigned two chapters each from the Text (Noli Me Tangere ni Rizal:Isang Interpretasyon by Ruth Elynia Mabanglo and Diosa N. Morong) to report in class and lead discussions on.

Oral Exam (15 %)

Students will be evaluated on their oral proficiency and vocabulary acquisition in Tagalog by the end of the term.

Midterm Exam (20%)

This exam will cover chapters 1-33 in an essay and identification type test.

Final Exam (25%)

This exam will cover chapters 34-64 in an essay and identification type test.
